Secretary: (1) To the best of my knowledge, all of the membership is receiving the monthly newsletter. If you know of someone who is not receiving it, please encourage the brother to contact me (contact information is on the back page of the newsletter). The newsletter is normally sent out to email distribution a day or two after the stated meeting that month. Those brothers volunteering to mail it to the non-email brothers are strongly encouraged to get the newsletter into the mail to those brothers within a day or two of the emailing, because there is often time-sensitive information in it. If you receive the newsletter by mail, but you do have an email address, please provide that email address to the Secretary! That will prevent one of your brothers from needlessly expending his time and the cost of a stamp and printing.

(2) If you are not an officer of the Lodge, and not a Coach or someone else who needs a building key to accomplish his Lodge work, please turn in the key. Otherwise the lodge potentially is going to be faced with the expense of having the locks re-keyed, or at a minimum, paying to have more keys made for providing to those who legitimately require "after-hours" building access.

Facilities and Maintenance Activity

13,000 roofing screws have been procured for repair of the roof of our Masonic Temple. WBs Bobby Burgess and Bill Moss already have replaced a couple thousand screws (Bobby alone about 500!), and urgently need a lot of help to get the remainder in place before it soon gets unbearably hot up on the roof. Please call Bobby at 704-634-3085(M), or email him at bb@electriclaser.com to volunteer some time for the effort. Bobby is concerned that no more damage is caused to the roof during the repair, so even though you might want to help, prevention of further damage might preclude the use of all the help volunteered. The job has to be done, and just like many of the brothers, Bobby also has to work his primary job to support himself and family; so any help for this roof repair will be greatly appreciated.

Masonic Interest Story

[I apologize if you, too, have recently read this. I cannot remember where I recently read it, but I enjoyed it.]

THE PAWNBROKER TALE AND FREEMASONS

A young man passed a pawnbroker's shop. The money lender was standing in front of his shop, and the young man noted that he was wearing a large and beautiful Masonic emblem. After going on a whole block, apparently lost in thought, the young man turned back, stepped up to the pawnbroker, and addressed him: "I see you're wearing a Masonic emblem. I'm a Freemason too. It happens that I'm desperately in need of $25 just now. I shall be able to repay it within ten days. You don't know me; but I wonder whether the fact that you are a Freemason and that I am a Freemason is sufficient to induce you to lend me the money on my personal note."

The pawnbroker mentally appraised the young man, who was clean-cut, neat and well-dressed. After a moments thought, he agreed to make the loan on the strength of the young man being a Freemason.

Within a few days the young man repaid the loan as agreed and that ended the transaction.

About four months later the young man was in a Lodge receiving the Entered Apprentice Degree; he had not really been a Mason when he borrowed the $25. After he had been admitted for the second section of the degree, the young man looked across the Lodge room and saw the pawnbroker from whom he had borrowed the $25. His face turned crimson and he became nervous and jittery. He wondered whether he had been recognized by the pawnbroker. Apparently not, so he planned at the first opportunity to leave the Lodge room and avoid his benefactor. As soon as the Lodge was closed he moved quickly for the door, but the pawnbroker had recognized the young man, headed him off and, to the young man's astonishment, approached him and greeted him with a smile and outstretched hand. "Well, I see you weren't a Freemason after all when you borrowed that $25," the pawnbroker commented. The blood rushed to the young man's face as he stammered, "No, I wasn't, but I wish you'd let me explain. I had always heard that

Freemasons were charitable and ready to aid a Brother in distress. When I passed your shop that day I didn't need that $25. I had plenty of money in my wallet, but when I saw the Masonic emblem you were wearing, I decided to find out whether the things I'd heard about Freemasonry were true. You let me have the money on the strength of my being a Freemason, so I concluded that what I had heard about Masons was true, that they are charitable, that they do aid Brethren in distress. That made such a deep impression on me that I presented my petition to this Lodge and here I am. I trust that with this explanation you will forgive me for having lied to you."

The pawnbroker responded, "Don't let that worry you too much. I wasn't a Freemason when I let you have the money. I had no business wearing the Masonic emblem you saw. Another man had just borrowed some money on it, and it was so pretty that I put it on my lapel for a few minutes. I took it off the moment you left. I didn't want anyone else borrowing money on the strength of my being a Freemason. When you asked for that $25, I remembered what I had heard about Masons, that they were honest, upright, and cared for their obligations promptly. It seemed to me that $25 wouldn't be too much to lose to learn if what I'd heard was really true, so I lent you the money and you repaid it exactly as you said you would. That convinced me that what I'd heard about Masons was true so I presented my petition to this Lodge. I was the candidate just ahead of you."
